

LAFAYETTE COLLEGE

THE ASSOCIATION OF BLACK COLLEGIANS

presents:

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 1989

HARLEM RENAISSANCE

"Harlem In Its Heyday"

14th

Kunkel Auditorium - 7:00 pm
Dr. Mary Helen Washington
Prof. of English, U. of Massachusetts Author of: Invented Lives and A Voice From The South

"Lynching, Narrative, and the Autobiographical Voice of Ida B. Wells"

20th

Interfaith Chapel - 8:00 pm
Dr. Arnold Rampersad
Prof. of English, Columbia U.

"Biographies and Langston Hughes"

23rd

Interfaith Chapel - 8:00 pm
Dr. Ernest Levister
Class of '58

"The Challenges for Blacks in Engineering and Science"

24th

Marquis Dining Hall - 9:00 pm
ABC Talent Show and
A Cabaret featuring
"A Night with Ms. Loretta Chandler & Co."
(formerly played 'Dusty' on TV show, FAME and toured with the play, HARLEM SUITE)

Sponsors:

The Association of Black Collegians
Office of the Deans of Academic Services
Office of the Dean of Students
Chaplain's Office
Office of the Provost and Dean of Faculty
Department of Religion
Society of Black Engineers

Williams Center for the Arts
Admissions Office
Skillman Library
Black Women's Support Group
English Department
Music Department
Zeta Psi Fraternity